MUSEUM LECTURE
January 7 3:30 p.m.

Dr. James R. Johnson, Curator of Art History and Education at The Cleveland Museum of Art, will probe the "Enigma of El Greco" in a lecture at the Museum Sunday, January 7 at 3:30 p.m. Dr. Johnson will present his own interpretation of the work of this great Spanish artist (1545-1614), using the Museum's HOLY FAMILY as an example of one of the paintings most indicative of Greco's style.

Dr. Johnson graduated from Harvard College, studied at the Sorbonne in Paris and earned his Ph.D. at Columbia University. He has contributed articles to various fine art publications and, in 1964, published the book The Radiance of Chartres. He is a member of The American Council of Learned Societies, The Mediaeval Academy of America, The American Society for Aesthetics and The College Art Association of America.
